

D.L. SIMMONS AND CHURCH ORGANS COMPANY

Along with our predecessor Forbes and Associates, we have a more than 45-year history in placing quality organs in churches, institutions, and homes throughout the Southeastern United States. We work closely with our customers to find the perfect instrument for their needs without artificially inflated prices or unnecessary costs from high overhead, within a realistic budget. We provide professional installation and finishing of every organ, large or small. We work closely with our customers to find the perfect instrument for their needs and within a realistic budget.

We are located in southwestern Alabama on the Central Gulf Coast, and serve the entire Southeast. We are proud of our record of satisfied customers.

Joining with the companies we represent to offer you the experience and expertise of a total of over 150 years combined organ experience!
